Changes in Huf Group Management and Advisory Board: Florian Gräf becomes Deputy Chairman of the Advisory Board

Velbert, September 28th, 2022 | As of October 1st, 2022, Florian Gräf, Chief Strategy Officer of Huf and member of the Management Board since 2019, will change from the operational management to the company's Advisory Board. The automotive supplier, leading specialist for secure car access and authorization, is 50 percent owned by each of the Hülsbeck and Fürst family trusts. The 39-year-old will be deputy to Ulrich Hülsbeck, chairman of the Advisory Board.

Huf has successfully completed the restructuring initiated in 2019. Thanks to a well-filled order book and future-oriented innovations, the company is continuously expanding its market position even in a persistently difficult economic environment.

"As a member of the Management Board, Florian Gräf has driven forward the strategic realignment of our company and played a decisive role in the future-oriented design of our product portfolio. On behalf of the Advisory Board, I would like to thank him most sincerely for these great achievements and welcome him to our Board as a new member and representative of the Fürst family line," says Advisory Board Chairman Ulrich Hülsbeck.

About Huf Group

The Huf Group is the leading specialist for secure car access and authorization systems. Established in Velbert by Ernst Hülsbeck and August Fürst in 1908, the family-owned company today has locations in Europe, America and Asia and supplies mechanical and electronic solutions for the global automotive industry. According to a study conducted by Handelsblatt, Huf is among the 20 most innovative companies in Germany. In the 2021 financial year, the Huf Group generated sales of roughly 1 billion EUR and employed 7,300 people worldwide.
